

From the President

Inspiration

As an old saying goes, with every challenge there is opportunity. It's an inspirational perspective most of us appreciate, as in "the glass is always half full."

We find ourselves as a nation and as a community, especially today, looking for inspiration and leadership. Many businesses, financial markets and investment portfolios are feeling the strain. As the future unfolds, Skålleagues around the world are likely facing challenging waters ahead.

Optimistic none-the-less, we will chart our next course to a better place. After all, survival is necessary to live and love another day. Funny thing about journeys, our intended destination depends on people, events, conditions and access we can't always see or anticipate. A sense of timing therefore must play a key role.

According to Webster's definition, to inspire is to suggest, be the motivating but unnamed power behind (something or someone). Sound familiar? It should. I've witnessed those qualities in you.

Inspiration encourages creativity, making the impossible seem possible. It often challenges existing norms and perception, even within ourselves. Inspiration comes from a quiet confidence within, one that sees through the challenge to the possibility. That said, imagine the sheer courage it takes to share that idea or inspiration with another. Imagine seeing that characteristic survive in someone under duress!

Keep these thoughts in mind as survivors from hurricane Ike in Texas and Louisiana share their experience and perspective. Look for stories of survival, courage, leadership and encouragement. Be inspired by those thankful and confident of better days to come.

Skålleagues appreciate and promote courage, conviction and inspiration, among other great qualities, in those we meet. We encourage by example, listening and guiding others to believe that their glass is always half full!

Join me as the busy fall and holiday season approaches and remember to appreciate your good fortune. Share your enthusiasm with another and live life to the fullest. SKÅL!

Please RSVP responsibly...

No Shows aren't good for hotels, or for Skål!

Since all of us are in the tourism business, we should understand that No Shows are not good for business.

Skål Orlando operates on a very tight budget, and your board works hard to assure that we act as good stewards of the clubs funds. In order to assure that we do not pay for meals not received, we ask that members have both the courtesy to RSVP if attending the monthly dinners and likewise the courtesy to cancel their reservation prior to the event if you, or your guest(s), have a conflict and cannot attend.

While active members are pre-paid, we will start billing for No Show guests and lifetime members that are to pay-at-the-door. We ask that active members also cancel in advance, as just five No Shows can cost the club almost $250 in one evening.

Likewise, please help us plan our events better by sending in your RSVP at least a week prior to the event. Many of our venues are asking for a 48-72 hour cut-off prior to the event for a guarantee. We have some great events coming up in the last three months of this year and look forward to seeing you there...with an RSVP in advance, of course.

Skål International EcoTourism Awards

Skål is the largest organization of travel and tourism professionals in the world, embracing all sectors of the tourism industry from hoteliers to travel agents, to airlines, tourism media, tourism students and similar. With 20,000 members, Skål is active in 90 countries and in almost 500 locations worldwide.

Skål International is an Affiliate Member of the United Nations World Tourism Organization, whose mission is to promote the development of responsible, sustainable and universally accessible tourism. Skål International in line with this vision and following the United Nations declaration of 2002 as the Year of Ecotourism and the Mountains, launched the Ecotourism Awards in the same year and the first awards were presented during the World Congress in Cairns in 2002.

Skål, as an international organization of industry leaders, is a powerful force in the travel and tourism industry to initiate change and encourage the conservation of the environment in order to promote tourism and travel. The awards presented on these grounds, while highlighting best practices in tourism around the world, also serve the purpose of acquainting the world with this new concept that puts emphasis on the importance of the interaction of the physical, cultural and social environment, the traveler's responsibility, and the need for active community participation for ecotourism.

Skål values sustainable development in tourism as the key to the industry's future success, and considers ecotourism is but one area of the various components of sustainable development.

Skål Orlando hosts Region IV Summer Congress

Greetings, fellow Skålleagues!

For those who attended the annual Region IV Summer Congress hosted by Skål Orlando, August 25-27, along with the many sponsors who contributed to a successful weekend, I want to thank you all for your support!

Between the golf event, accommodations and the Saturday evening banquet hosted by Falcon's Fire and the Caribe Royale respectively, congratulations to fellow Skålleagues, Jody Seifert and Philippe de Leonardis for a job well done!

Kudos also to fellow Skålleague Leslie Wright, who without his time and effort as our event Chairman and Master of Ceremonies, we could not have accomplished this successful event! If there was any disappointment during this weekend, it was the Orlando team losing to Tampa Bay by one (1) Callaway point for the Region IV Championship trophy, whereas Orlando came in second and Jacksonville third in the tournament! Congratulations are in order for all those that participated!

For those who attended either the Hospitality room and/or the Saturday evening cocktail/banquet, you would have met many of our Skål USA Board members who in conjunction with our Congress were invited to join some of our festivities while they conducted their Annual SIUSA Summer Board meeting.

On behalf of the SIUSA Board they wanted me to extend to the Orlando club, the sponsors and organizers and all those in attendance – their many thanks and above all the Amicale which was extended during their visit.

In conclusion – please don't forget – we need your support at the next Summer Region IV Congress which will be hosted by our Skål family to the south, Tampa Bay! Further details will be announced in 2009!
